New Solar Power Plant for Doric Green Power

Fund investment phase to be completed in June 2010 with the acquisition of two more power plants

Offenbach/Marktheidenfeld – Doric Asset Finance has purchased another solar energy plant. With a total output of 5.6 megawatts, the plant is located in Marktheidenfeld, approximately one hour's drive southeast of Frankfurt. The photovoltaic plant will become the second such plant in Doric's closed-end fund Doric Green Power. The fund has also invested in a number of bioenergy plants. Doric Green Power's investment phase is expected to end in June 2010, once the acquisition of a further two solar energy plants has been completed. Energiequelle GmbH (Energiequelle) is constructing the solar plant in Marktheidenfeld, which is scheduled to start supplying electricity in the first half of 2010. The lease agreement for the 14 hectares of land on which the plant is situated runs for 20 years and includes an option to extend.

Energiequelle is constructing the plant with crystalline modules from Canadian Solar and power inverters from SMA Solar Technology AG. The project developer will also take over the day-to-day operation of the plant including management, monitoring, maintenance and repairs.

Doric Asset Finance acquired a first photovoltaic plant in Bavaria with a total output of 3.7 megawatts for its Doric Green Energy fund in February 2010.
